

Subj: Thanks & Info for SeaStar
Date: 10/6/2008 10:47:30 AM Eastern Standard Time
From: nhammerschlag@rsmas.miami.edu
To: gale.myers@att.net, visionfar@aol.com

Gale & Mike,

Thank you for your tremendous and generous support this season. We could not have done it without you!! Thank you so very much..both professionally and personally - you saved the day big time!!!

To help with fund raising etc..attached please find information for you to use for your website and other materials.

Also, please find more info about the Program at <http://sfssp.rsmas.miami.edu>

Please find photos that you can download and use at http://cufer.rsmas.miami.edu/wordpress/?page\_id=219

I hope this helps. Once again thank you for your tremendous support!!

Warm regards,
Neil

—
Neil Hammerschlag
University of Miami
Ph.D. Candidate, Marine Biology and Fisheries
Co-Director, South Florida Student Shark Program (SFSSP)
Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science (RSMAS)
4600 Rickenbacker Cswy, Miami, Florida, 33149

E-mail: nhammerschlag@rsmas.miami.edu
O: 305.421.4356 F: 305.421.4600 C: 954.815.0920

Shark Program (SFSSP): <http://sfssp.rsmas.miami.edu>

Save The Blue: <http://www.savetheblue.org>

Personal Website: <http://www.neil4sharks.org>